

Freelance Workshop Facilitator

Hours: as required

Rate: £25/hour

Location: Currently remote (in future, remote/office hybrid (Moorgate, London))

Reports to: Senior Coordinator

If you have the following, this job may be for you...

- Experience in facilitating workshops, taking a dynamic and creative approach
- A passion for social mobility and equity; and experience of working with young people
- Experience working with a range of stakeholders (i.e. young people, corporates, education partners)

Overview

For 25 years The Brokerage has been supporting talented, less advantaged young people to fulfil their potential through improved awareness and access to professional career opportunities. We are now at an exciting and dynamic point having launched a strategic redirection that has seen us work with corporate partners in a deeper, more intrinsic way. This complements our programmes for young people by ensuring that organisations create environments where our young talent will thrive. Thought leadership, supporting corporates with culture change and innovative new services now sit alongside our youth-focused mission. Having just implemented a new partnership model, we are fast-growing and have doubled in size over the past year.

We are now looking for a Freelance Workshop Facilitator with a passion for working with young people to join our team. The Freelance Workshop Facilitator will help us deliver workshops and mentoring schemes to young people and our corporate partners.

You will be joining a collaborative, diverse, mission-led team and organisation that is committed to ensuring that our young people from less advantaged backgrounds have positive outcomes in the world of work.

Role purpose and main responsibilities

As a Freelance Workshop Facilitator, you will take the lead on delivery of workshops whilst working in a highly collaborative and flexible way alongside the wider team.

Responsibilities will include:

- Delivering workshops – deliver a range of online and face to face employability based workshops to young people aged 16-25.
- Supporting the delivery of our mentoring programmes – help develop mentoring resources, deliver mentor and mentee training and facilitate mentoring sessions both in person and online.
- Maintaining excellent relationships – with corporate partners, volunteers, and schools; and building relationships with our young people including regular monitoring of safeguarding processes.
- Undertaking necessary administrative tasks – to ensure the preparation and smooth running of our workshops and events, including the maintenance of student and volunteer records using the CRM database (Salesforce) and ensuring feedback is completed by workshop participants and volunteers as required.
- Contributing to new ideas and ensure best practice – by providing feedback, taking a creative approach to delivery whilst maintaining the high standard of our sessions.
- Undertaking other duties as deemed appropriate.
- Some travel to locations around London and occasional out of hours' work as required.

What we are looking for (Our wish list)!

We are not expecting you to tick every box below, but we are looking for someone who has a passion for workshop facilitation and working with young people. If you are confident that you are the right candidate for this role but don't quite meet 100% of the criteria, be bold, apply anyway!

Are you a Changemaker?

- Knowledge of and interest in issues surrounding social mobility, education, as well as equity, diversity and inclusion/power and privilege in the workplace.
- Relevant lived experience (i.e. the experience of the challenges faced by those from less-advantaged and/or Black, Asian or other ethnic minority backgrounds)
- Adaptable with a growth mindset, open to feedback, learning and development

The Essentials

- Have relevant experience working with young people in a delivery-based role.
- Show a clear enthusiasm for working with young people.
- Have excellent written and verbal communication, public speaking and presentation skills, and the ability to captivate audiences while being innovative and creative in approach.
- Have experience of working with volunteers and/or in partnership with business partners.
- Have a real interest in social mobility and understand the barriers young people face when deciding their future careers.
- Be confident meeting a variety of new people and presenting to new audiences.

- Be able to build rapport and demonstrate credibility with employers and education professionals.
- Have outstanding organisational skills.
- Excellent IT skills, including demonstrable usage of Microsoft Office suite, CRM databases (e.g. Salesforce or equivalent) and social media
- Have the ability to work independently
- Have excellent time management skills and the ability to work well under pressure
- Be flexible in approach to delivery
- Knowledge and experience of relevant child protection and safeguarding issues

How to apply

Please send a copy of your CV and completed application form questions below to admin@thebrokerage.org.uk.

Please note interviews will be taking place on a rolling basis and this vacancy will close once we find the right candidate.

Please get in touch if you would like to find out more about this role; we are happy to answer any questions you may have.

Freelance Workshop Facilitator

Application Form

Please complete and return this application form along with a copy of your CV to admin@thebrokerage.org.uk

What experience do you have facilitating workshops and working with young people (particularly less advantaged young people)? (200 words max)
Please outline how the rest of your past experience (lived and professional) makes you the right candidate for this role (paying close attention to the job description) (200 words max)
Please outline any gaps or areas for development you may have (200 words max)
Notice period and availability